

Marcus Lavon Knox

December 27, 1971 - December 15, 2020

On December 15, 2020 our beloved son and brother, Marcus LaVon Knox affectionately known as “Cool” left to be with his Heavenly Father. Born in Brooklyn, New York, Marcus became a resident of Portsmouth, Virginia in 1985. For 22 years he worked for the City of Virginia Beach as a Public Utilities Worker.

HE was a humble man who loved his family. Marcus became a member of Third Baptist Church where he dedicated his life to Christ. Because of his faith, he was known for his cool and calm spirit towards people.

But above all, Marcus loved his Mom. Aside from their bond, Marcus was the ultimate big brother that would help anybody in need. He loved to help people, he loved being independent and he definitely loved the Dallas Cowboys.

He is survived by his parents, George and Colester Knox; one sister, Tierra Knox, all of Portsmouth, Virginia; six uncles, nine aunts and a host of cousins and close friends.

“ I am truly going to miss your text messages checking on me and the kids. My sons are never going to forget how you took them in the evenings and taught them how to drive. Im so grateful that we met and you brought me to church. You were there for my baptism you were there when my daughter had the baby you were there when i was stressed out but you always reminded me to remember something the pastor Joseph said. Although im in tears for days Im happy knowing that you knew who God was. Rest in his arms. Prayers to the family love you moma knox

To The Knox Family I'm So Sorry To Hear Of This News. I Was One Of His Co-Workers At The City. Marcus Was Always Kind & Respectful And We Shared The Same Love For The Dallas Cowboys. I Was Just Asking Someone About Him A Couple Of Months Ago...I Am Praying For You All. Again Extending My Deepest Condolences To Your Family.
