“ It's was sadden to find out the passing of Sister Margarette Patton, she was a dedicated and faithful member of the Senior Citizens Bible for many years. She often greeted you with a smile and then talk awhile about the goodness of GOD and how he was taking care of her, sure family she will be sadly missed but oh so remembered by the class. “ Sending love and support to the family. Margarette holds a very special place in our hearts and lives. My mother, Dora “Duck” Gardner McCree spent many phone conversations with her. The Britt/Gardner family connection is unique. It was not discovered until late in our lives. But, Margarette and her family made it their solemn duty to nourish the connection that simply enriched our lives in a very special way.

We will always keep Margarette close to our hearts.

Bless You,
