

Margie R. Edwards

April 7, 1938 - July 13, 2015

Margie Ree Edwards, known to her children as "My"; to her grandchildren and great-grandchildren as "Grandma & Great-Grand"; departed this life on, Monday, July 13, 2015. She was born on April 7, 1938 to the late Vernon and Rozelia Carney of Norfolk County. Margie was a 1956 graduate of Crestwood High, thereafter; she attended Virginia Union University for two years. In 1984 she graduated from Central School of Practical Nursing. At an early age she became strong, independent and a dependable young woman with great work ethics. She was employed with General Electric (GE) for many years before deciding to become a nurse. Margie, in 2002, retired from Maryview Nursing Home in Suffolk, Virginia. Throughout her career she received numerous certificates for her skills of excellence. My was a great woman who loved her family and her devoted late husband of 54 years, McKinley. Some of her hobbies were sewing, baking and couponing. She looked forward to her great-grand children's visits, for they all have a unique way of making her laugh. Margie was known for "straight talk, straight answers". You could be assured that if you needed an encouraging word; she would be there. Her presence touched many lives. Margie was predeceased by her parents, her husband-McKinley Edwards, a son-Kenwood V. Edwards, a grandson-Brian "Lil Brian" Hill and a sister-Ernestine Hurdle. She will be forever remembered by her daughter-Angela P. Edwards of Portsmouth, Va.; three sons-Andrew Carney, Milton Edwards and Brian O. Edwards (Crystal) all of Portsmouth; a sister-Gloria J. Carney of Chesapeake, VA; a brother-Vernon H. Carney (Barbara) of Morena Valley, California; four grandchildren- LaShanta Edwards Parker of Chesapeake, VA, Chantel Williams (Gregory), LaQuetta Toliver (Melvin) and Carey Hill all of Portsmouth, VA; five treasured great grandchildren-Deyonta & Deshawn Williams, Imani Toliver, Bryce and Breon Parker; and a host of other family and friends whom were blessed to know her.
