“ Anthony and Family,

I am sorry about the passing of your loved one. It is not an easy thing losing someone who you have loved. I lost my mother and I know the heart ache you fill at this time. Time will heal your pain but the heart will never forget, and her memories will live on.##imported-begin##antoinette otey##imported-end##

“ I was privileged to have had an upfront personal relationship with Momma. Before her, I truly did not know a real mother's love. For those who knew the life Momma lived, understand that our grief and sadness does not linger in hopelessness. We shall join her some day, if we continue to live right. We're so Grateful for all that she had invested into our lives, and know that she's now enjoying the promise of Eternal rest. I'm so honored to be called one of her own and to have served her over the years in whatever way the Lord had me to do so. Momma lived a life worthy of following. I declare, she was a genuine Saint of the Most High. Amen.##imported-begin##L. D. Cole##imported-end##

“ Tony, we send you heart felt sympathy in the loss of your mother, Ms Marie. She was one of my Mom's (Lillian Lynch) best friends. After my Moms' death in 1986, she never failed to call us at least every two months to say hello and wish us all the best of Gods' goodness. She was a very loving and caring individual and touched the hearts of many. We hope and know that God will continue to bless and strengthen you and family.

“ Who is Marie Johnson?

Marie Johnson is known by various identities, and I must say, all good ones. To Tony and the church, she is known as Mother. Her love, unselfishness and devotion are that of a virtuous woman. She is highly to be praised.

To the benefactors of her prayer life, she was a “prayer warrior”. She described how she would travel in her prayers traveling the highways beginning in Chesapeake and branching out methodically in many directions to reach us here in Ozark, Alabama to bless our lives. I can imagine seeing her now still praying for us in heaven.

Friend is another identity of Mrs. Marie. No matter what the cost, she did not make excuses not do what she promised. If she said it, you could “bank on it”. She kept our family in touch with New Hope Baptist Church over the years. While we were away in military service, Mrs. Johnson was a true friend to our dad, George Throckmorton. She is a most precious Christian Lady.

Although I could write a book about the great life of faith she lived, I will sum up all by saying Mrs. Marie Johnson is a Great Child of God because of her commitment to our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and her tremendous service which speaks of her greatness. She is great because of her humbleness to serve our Lord in whatever capacity she could. To us living, let us follow her life of Christian faith and service to do all we can while it is day so we too can be greeted by our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ as He said in St. Matthew 25: 21, “Well done”. Mrs. Marie, Well Done.

From Ozark, Alabama

“ To God be the Glory!!
Godmother Marie was truly one of the kind and the rarest jewel that God had created and to be shared by others.
Anthony thank you for sharing your mother with me. Our mothers were long time freinds before we were born. Now they are together again in Heaven. She is absent from the body but she lives within you in spirit.

Your Godsister

“ To Cousin Tony and the rest of my beloved family, I've always felt some sense of guilt at times at being so far away from you all, due to military service, and then my choice to retire in England, my wife's home country. I would loved to have seen my family more often and that included my dearest Aunt Marie. I was blessed to have seen my Aunt, after several years, this past August, and it was the highlight of my visit. We reminisced about many things, including my summer visits to my Grandmothers. She would come by, ask if I wanted to hit the road and, without hesitation, I was in the car. After running a few errands, stopping at several stores, and visiting some family and friends, we would always end the day at that one Pharmacy/Soda Fountain shop (you know the one) getting a Pepsi with a shot of "amonia". To say I miss those times with my Aunt Marie would be an an understatement, to say I'll miss my Aunt Marie, as I live out my remaining years, would be even a bigger understatement. Now that Aunt Marie has been reunited with her family in the spirit, we, the family who remain here in the physical, will continue her legacy of love and putting GOD and FAMILY first.

“ To the Johnson's family and extended family:

Our prayers are with you and pray that the God of all comforts console you during your time of bereavement. We know she is in a better place where there is no more tears and pain and she is in the arms of Jesus. Precious in the sight of our Lord is the death of one of his saints. ps 116:5

“ To our Dearest Sis. Kidd and family -
When those we love have left this earth,
We still can feel them near.
We'll see a picture, hear a song,
And it's just like they are here.
And when we call upon our faith,
When we believe and trust,
We know the ones we care about
Are always close to us...

May the stars carry your sadness away,
May the flowers fill your heart with beauty,
May hope forever wipe away your tears,
And above all, May God make you stronger!

Love Always,
