

Marjorie L. Clark

January 9, 1932 - July 28, 2016

Marjorie L. Clark, affectionately known as Margie, went home to be with the Lord on Thursday, July 28, 2016. She was born in Richmond, VA to the late Rev. Roy Clark and Helen Bellamy Clark. A faithful member of Mt. Carmel Baptist Church, for over 46 years, Margie rededicated her life to the Lord. She has served on the Women's Service Auxiliary, Women's Day Committee, the Beautification Committee, the Women's Usher Board and in the choir.

She retired as an accounting supervisor after working 27 years at the Norfolk Naval Base and Newport News Shipyard. An avid reader, Margie read the daily newspaper from cover to cover with the exception of Sports. She began developing creative writing skills as a childhood poet. She majored in English and minored in journalism at Virginia State College where she met her husband, Robert Sr. Years later, she enjoyed registering voters at the polls, working in her civic league and tutoring adults in reading. She always made time to visit the sick and catchup with her walking buddies. She cherished family gatherings and vacationing with family and friends. She also thoroughly enjoyed crocheting gorgeous afghans for loved ones and working challenging math and crossword puzzles.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Robert A. Clark Sr. Margie leaves to cherish her memory, three children: Robert A. Clark Jr. (Linda) of Chesapeake, Ramona Clark Patterson of Charlotte, NC and Roy A. Clark of Norfolk; a brother, Michael Clark of Suffolk; two sisters-in-law, Gloria Clark Harvey of Norfolk and Celestine Hall of New Hampshire; six grandchildren, Crystal Jones (Marcel) of Fredericksburg, VA, Anike McKoy (Aaron) of Richmond, VA, Lemuel Rashaad Patterson (Kira) of Richmond, VA, Robert A. Clark of Glade Spring, VA, Lauren Patterson of Atlanta, GA, Cory Clark of Glade Spring, VA; seven great grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

“ Mrs. Clark was a warm and giving person. She opened her heart and arms to me and my husband when we started going to Mt. Carmel Missionary Baptist Church in 2003. We looked forward to sitting behind her at church and feeling her warmth of welcome. She was a God send for us and she will surely be missed. We want to extend our prayers to her family and let them know we will keep them in prayer at this time.

God Bless,
James and Cynthia McDuffie

“ *Dearest Ramona and family,
Please know that you are in my thoughts and prayers. I know your hearts are hurting now. But what I know for sure is that in time those wonderful memories of your Mom and Grandmother will wash over you and joy will once again live inside of you. Peace be with you.
