

Marquis Shaquille Terry

July 9, 1989 - December 3, 2012

Marquis Shaquille Terry departed this life on Monday, December 3, 2012. He was born July 9, 1989 in Oakland, California to Charles Terry and the late Roberta Terry, the third of six children. The family moved to Portsmouth in 1997. Marquis was educated in the Portsmouth School System and graduated from I. C. Norcom High School. He was a stand-out player for the Fighting Greyhounds football team. He also enjoyed basketball, running track, video, and music. He attended Delaware State University as well as Tidewater Community College. He was recently an employee of Burger King.

He was well known for his cool demeanor and quiet confidence. He was fascinated by history and science and spent countless hours watching educational television programs with his daughter, Iyanna.

Marquis accepted Christ and joined St. Mark Missionary Baptist Church at an early age. He was known for his love of family and loyalty to his many friends.

He leaves to cherish his memory his daughter, Iyanna Terry; his father, Charles Terry; siblings, Cynthia Gainey, Uniqua Terry, Emmanuel Terry, Cori Terry, and Javonte Terry, all of Portsmouth, and Brittany Moore and Eugene Moore, both of Oakland, CA; five aunts and five uncles; a nephew and niece, David and Saybah Gainey; and a host of other relatives and friends.

*We think of you in silence, We often speak your name
Now all we have is memories, and your picture in a frame.
Your memory is our keepsake, With which we'll never part.
God has you in his keeping. We have you in our heart.
Forever Friends. Rest In Peace My Brother.*
