“ I was sorry to learn of the passing of Marva. we go back to Winnie the Pooh days when our children attended the nursery on Dandridge Drive under the direction of Leslie Jordan. Marva was a fighter and is now being welcomed into heaven. Her husband, Johnnie, and daughter and my soror, Anita, are welcoming her with open arms. I pray that your grief will subside and your tomorrows will remind you of the rich legacy that Marva, as well as Johnnie and Anita, have left behind.

“ I knew this wonderful lady starting when I was a young child. Her husband JB worked with my dad a long time ago and I would play with their daughter Anita. JB and Marva even attended my first marriage and took my wedding photos. She was such a nice lady, as were the rest of her family. Now, without a doubt they will all be together again. God bless anyone else left behind.

“ I met Marva Jones when I became a student at S.H. Clarke Junior High school. She was the nicest teacher I had ever met. Years later we became neighbors in Stonebridge Landing. She became my nice neighbor and it was a pleasure in life to know her. Rest well, Marva.

“ I offer my sincerest condolences to the family of Mrs. Jones. I am one of her students from the old WWHS. You don't always remember your teachers, but she was one of the best. I am proud to say my undergraduate degree is in mathematics and Mrs. Jones played a huge part in my academic studies. I pray you find comfort in know she touched many students lives within Portsmouth Public Schools. Rest in paradise and I will see you on the other side.
