“ Melvin & Family,

I am so sorry for your loss. Marvin was a fine young man. I worked with him on the night shift a few years back at MMC. He was always so polite. May God hold you and comfort you and your family at this time.

You were a wonderful person and I thank God that we have a piece of you still here with us with Deonna. I know you will be watching over your little girl like you always have been since day one.
