“ Sorry to hear about the loss of your brother. Our deepest condolences to you and your family. We pray that God gives you and your family the strength to move forward in this difficult time. God looked down and choose the best flower. We met Marvin at Elizabeth City State University, and he was truly a good friend indeed. He was a sweet and caring person. God be with you and your family. Linda and I will keep you and your family in our prays.

Love,

“ Marvin so wanted his voice restored, for he loved to sing and wanted to express himself clearly. Well now, he is singing with the angels, a song the angels can't sing. He set records in track and set records in life for his love of family and of God. Love and miss you. Glendora

“ Barbara, I know words can only offer a temporary comfort but know that my love and prayers are with you and your family. There is a verse from "In the Arms of Jesus" that I hope will offer some peace.

*There is a place I long to be
In my Savior's embrace
Where I am free from life's cares
There's rest and sweet communion
Jesus has all that I need
For in His presence there is fullness of joy
And at His right hand there are pleasures forever more
There is no place I'd rather be
Than in the arms of Jesus, my King
I am in the arms of Jesus*
