“ I met Marvin, after I moved to Williamsburg. He was my LYFT driver. Marvin became my friend after that. He came to my rescue, when my car wouldn't start. He was going out with his family. I got to meet them. His family believe in God & Jesus Christ. He loved his family. Marvin shared family gatherings, especially at Holiday time. Marvin shared his love for cooking & the recipe that his children shared with him. Marvin kept me abreast of his health & asked me to keep sending him scriptures, of which I did. Words cannot express how I feel at this time. My Godly friend has gone to Glory with the Lord. Marvin is no longer in pain. Marvin, 😊, fought the battle, but Victory is in Heaven. RIP 🙏🕊️😊
