“She is more precious than rubies; nothing you desire can compare with her". Proverbs 3:15

Extending my condolences and love to Deacon Robert Brown and family. May the love of family, friends and church family be a sought of healing for you and your family, as you navigate through this difficult time. We were blessed to have you and Deacon Mary Ann as our tribal leaders (Tribe of Dan) for years. You both became our emeritus tribal leaders.

So many precious and memorable moments that I shared with Deacon Mary Ann. Whatever kind deed you were able to do for her; you could expect a beautiful thank you card in the mail. I still have some of those cards. She was a true jewel, who saw the beauty in everything. She was beautiful inside out, always wanting the best for everyone. Everyone was special to her in your own unique way. I pray that God will continue to hold Deacon Brown and family in the hollow of His hands. He will see you through these times. The memories of Deacon Mary Ann will continue to live on in our hearts. She was indeed one special lady! Gone but never forgotten...

Love,
