

Mary A. Boyd

March 4, 1926 - January 23, 2015

But as for me, I trust in You, O Lord, I say, "You are my God,"
My times are in your hands. Psalm 31:14-1

On Friday January 23, 2015 Mary Boyd was visited by an angel and was escorted into eternal rest.

Mary was a friendly, active and outspoken person who loved people. She enjoyed going to church. Recently, she became a member of Glimerton Star AME Zion Church where she attended faithfully until her health failed.

Carrington Place of Chesapeake was Mary's residence for several years. There she was known for greeting all in the various caps that she liked to wear. Participating in the activities of this facility, interacting with the employees, visitors other residents helped Mary to think of Carrington Place as home.

Mary will be greatly missed by her Carrington Place family, friends and visitors. She also will be missed by her dedicated and loving caregiver and friend, Ellen T. Cheeks and her family.
