“ God set it up so our paths would cross and we would connect based on those things we had in common - spiritual and personal. My life is richer and I will miss Maryland. So sorry we didn't get to hang out more but it was still all good. She helped me celebrate my combined 55th birthday and my book signing party last June 27, 2009. For that I am truly grateful. I did not get to read the book she was working on but I am sure it would have been a help to the women she was aiming to help deal with personal struggles. Smile down on those of us left behind and remember us to the Father.

I wish peace and comfort to the family.

“ Family,

I was saddened to hear of Maryland's passing. As a child, we were best friends. As adults, we shared the same last name -- how ironic! God kept the two of us connected all of our lives.

I was encouraged by Maryland's strength when I visited her a few weeks ago. She made me realize that no matter what was going on in my life, that I had the courage to face it, with God's help. Not once did she complain about anything, and I thank God for the fellowship that we enjoyed on that day. Maryland told her roommate, "this is my family" when we entered the room. We talked about how she was doing, read scripture, prayed, as we enjoyed the sunshine and the beauty of the day, sitting on the porch. Maryland, with her great memory, reminded me that we were hired and entered the Norfolk Naval Shipyard on the same day in 1984. We played "flower tag" -- I sent her flowers, and then she surprised me a few weeks ago, with a bouquet of flowers just to say "Thank you for thinking of me". I am happy that I had the opportunity be with her in her final days, and to tell her how much I loved her. Her last words to me was "I love you too".

May the grace of God, and His peace comfort you. Rejoice in knowing that Maryland is with the Yahweh God and Yeshua the Christ that she talked about. I know that she lives forever, praising God!##imported-begin##Tish McMillian-Johnson##imported-end##

“ To My Family:

Just wanted to let you all know that you are in my thoughts and prayers. I can look back in my mind's eye and see all of us playing as children on Back Street (Freeman Avenue). Although I will not be able to be there with you, I will be praying for comfort for the family. I know that Maryland is at peace with God. I rejoice because Tish told me how remarkably strong she was when she went to visit her three weeks ago. So when God called Maryland home, she was ready.

Be strong in the Lord, and the power of His might. He will not leave you or forsake you. In the days to come, you will certainly miss her physical presence, but know that she is safe in His arms.
