“ Proverbs 3:15

"She is more precious than jewels, and nothing you desire can compare with her."

To the Smith Family,

Joann, extending my heartfelt condolences to you and your family. I humbly pray that God continues to grant you the strength to get through these difficult days ahead, you will always remember the kindness momma shared and the love she brought into your lives. Maxine's love for her family was unconditional. She loved all of you and you all loved her as well. She showed kindness and love to everyone she met with a smile! She was just that sweet of a lady.

I was blessed to work with Maxine during the early 70's. We both were working as a nurse aide in one of the nursing homes. Maxine was a hard and fast worker. She didn't play when it came to taking care of her patients. She taught all of us how to work with ease and still take care of our patients with love and compassion. Her life was always focused on taking care of others.

Family, may the memories you hold close in your heart, be a source of healing for you during this time. Praying for your strength.

Blessings & Love
