On the behalf of the Etheridge family, we extend our deepest sympathy to the Jones family. I have known this family my entire life. My Aunt Geneva Scarbough lived next door to Rev. David Jones. Rest in peace Melvin. GOD has retired you from your labor to your reward. God bless . . .From the daughter of the late Mabel Etheridge.

“ To Elder Melvin & Mrs. Jones,

I will always remember how the both of you came to help my parents babysit our daughter when she was about 9 mos old. My husband and I were going to see a play and when we left she evidently didn't want us to leave and started to cry. My mom said this went on for some time and they all took turns rocking and walking around with her.

But, it took Elder Jones to quiet her down. I know it was his calm voice and spirit that soothed her. I will always remember him as being such a good friend of the family. More like family than a friend. God bless the family during this time, and just remember he's where we all hope to be one day.

*We love you,
Bancroft, Sharon and Noelle Neufville*

“ Uncle Melvin,

We will miss you and your magnetic personality. No matter what the conversation was about you always knew something about anything there was. I'm glad I had a chance to sit in the backyard with you and chat in July. I know you are in the right hands now. You are a top draft pick on God's Team.
