

Michael Maurice Moore Sr.

June 23, 1957 - August 2, 2013

On August 2, 2013, our beloved husband, father and brother was called home for eternal rest. Michael Maurice Moore lovingly known as “Kookie” to family and friends was born on June 23, 1957 in Portsmouth, Virginia. He was the fourth child born of five to the late Howard Moore X and Vivian Mills Moore. Michael was educated in the Chesapeake school system. He took pride in studying and working alongside his father, uncles and brother in the family business C. H. Moore & Sons shoe repair in his earlier years of life. He also worked as a Tech Operations Manager with Bellville Meadows in Suffolk, VA. Michael was a dedicated husband and family man. He was always eager to step in and help when needed and we all know he was a #1 Dallas Cowboys Fan.

Michael leaves to cherish his memories his loving wife, Debbie Moore, a son Michael Moore, Jr., and a stepdaughter, Pasqualina Freeman; a devoted sister, Linda Moore; two brothers, Dwan Moore and Craig Moore; his mother in law, Wilhemina Whitehead all of Portsmouth, VA along with a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, stepchildren, step grandchildren and friends.

Michael is predeceased by his father, Howard Moore X; his mother, Vivian Mills Moore; a brother, Howard Moore, Jr.; his paternal grandparents, Cal H. Moore and Ester Challe Moore Mizel and his maternal grandparents, Elijah Mills and Bell Mills.

“ My deepest sympathy to the family. Just got the news of him going home. I grew-up with (Cookie) that's what we called him from Marcy Street. His brother Butch, Sister Linda we hung out in the neighborhood everyday. Cookie always kept a smile on his face even when we all were being bad getting into trouble. It's been years since we all have seen each other ..but Good people you always remember. But I know he is singing in the heavenly choir. May God's peace comfort his family... Cheryl-Ann Washington
