

Mikal L. Nichols

May 4, 1996 - June 2, 2018

Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And Lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. AMEN Matthew 6:9-13.

Saturday, June 2, 2018, Mikal Nichols entered his eternal home. He was born May 4, 1996 in Portsmouth, Virginia to Dominique and Mary Ann Nichols. He received his educational training from the Chesapeake Public School.

We take time out to thank God for the years we had together with Mikal. He was a faithful and loving, brother, uncle and cousin. He enjoyed hanging out with friends and going to the Rec Center, working out and playing basketball. Some of his favorite words were Bro, Cuh, and I Got This Ma.

Mikal was preceded in death by his grandmother, Sandra Nichols, her mother and father, Melvin and Velree Overton, Cherishing his memory is his loving mother and father, Dominique (Nick) and Mary Ann Nichols, one brother Dequan Nichols (Ayanna) of the United State Navy, one sister Maquayla Nichols of Portsmouth, VA, nephew Jakob Nichols of Portsmouth, VA, grandfather, Carlton Black of Chesapeake, VA, great-grandmother Estelle Overton of Chesapeake, VA, two aunts, Cheryl Williams of Portsmouth, VA and Macie Lacks of V A Beach, V A, two great aunts, Karen Evans and JoAnna Moss of Chesapeake, VA, three uncles Leslie Nichols of South Carolina, Carlton Nichols of Norfolk, VA, and Daniel Williams of Amherst, VA, three great uncles Melvin and Mark Overton of Zion, Ill. Paul Overton of Chesapeake, VA and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ So sorry to hear of the loss of my little cousin!!!

I am trusting that God will continue to get the glory even at this sad hour and I trust that he will comfort and keep his parents, siblings and extended family as we seek to lay him to rest.

Continue to love each other...

*Love always,
Cousin Mike*
