“ Seeing this obituary is making it so hard for me. I hadn't talked to Mia in a long time and right this moment I regret that so much. During my rough teenage years this was my momma. The one person that had the ability to put up with me when no one else could. But I do have the satisfaction of knowing that the last time I did talk to her she told me I was doing good. I was a hand full and she never once shut her door to me. Being a single mother with 5 kids (and we know that had to be rough) she always opened her door to me as the sixth one. RIP my dear aunt will always LOVE you.

To The Whitfield Family:

*Remember, Earth has no sorrow that Heaven cannot heal.
I know you all will grieve for Mia, but I also know you will get through this together.*

Prayerfully yours, Doreen

It is so surreal. I still can't believe that my mother is gone. I am truly going to miss you momma. I know that you are no longer suffering, but you have left us to soon. I have a big void in my heart now that you are gone. It is like a dream that I have not waken up from. I never want to wake up from this dream, because; if I do, I will know that you are no longer with us. You will be missed but never forgotten. You have touched so many people hearts and lives. I know we have a another Guardian Angel watching over us. I know moma (grandma) is happy to see you. You are now with moma (grandma), Marquise, and Durreal watching over the Whitfield & DeLoatch family. I love you momma. I miss you so much.
