

Milton Lee Artis

May 20, 1927 - March 12, 2011

Milton “Nub” Lee Artis was born in Portsmouth, Virginia on May 20, 1927 to the late Edna Artis. After a brief illness, Milton transitioned from earth to glory quietly and peacefully on Saturday, March 12, 2011. Affectionately called “Nub” by family and friends, Milton attended Portsmouth Public Schools. During his childhood and adolescence years, Milton was a member of the Historic Emanuel AME Church in Portsmouth, Virginia where he was baptized and accepted the Lord Jesus as His personal savior. Reaffirming his faith pilgrimage, Milton later joined the Zion Bethel United Church of Christ. Milton leaves to cherish his memory his wife, Linda Walker Artis, one son Keith Jordan of Raleigh, NC, nephew Minister Hugo J Morrison, who he raised as a son, one granddaughter Chelsea Haskins of Suffolk, VA. Milton also leaves to treasure his memories one brother, Filmore Artis of New York, NY; Eunice M.Walker, mother-in-law and two sisters-in-law; Diane Carmack and Rosalind Morrison. He also leaves to cherish his memories a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

The Life celebration service will occur on Monday, March 21, 2011 at 11am at Zion Bethel United Church of Christ; Dr. D.A. Peace, Sr. will be the eulogist. J.T. Fisher Funeral Services has been entrusted to handle the final care arrangements. Viewing will take place on Sunday, March 20, 2011 from 4pm to 7pm. Condolences for the family may be offered at www.jtfisherfuneralservices.com
