“ My prayers are with the family who Miranda loved so dearly. I had the pleasure of working with Miranda at Norfolk Naval Shipyard for many years. It was always nice to engage in conversation with her as she would always have something encouraging and uplifting to say whether it was about family, work or her love for the Lord. The last time I saw her was at our retirement dinner in 2019, we retired the same time. There she was as usual, with that big smile, every hair in place, styling and profiling. This is how I will remember her.
