

Morris Hood

June 19, 1952 - March 15, 2016

Morris Cleveland Hood, June 19, 1952- March 15, 2016. Resident of Laurel, Maryland, after a courageous 13 year battle of Alzheimer's, passed away peacefully. He was surrounded and supported by his family and his caregivers during his last days of his life.

Morris Cleveland Hood was born on June 19, 1952 to Jasper and Vandelia (Harper) Hood in Portsmouth, V A.

Morris spent summers in North Carolina with his cousins during summer breaks. Morris graduated from Norcom High School in Portsmouth, VA. After high school, He got a job working at the Naval Ship yard where he met and married his wife Joyce (Gregory) Hood. Morris joined the Marines in 1970. After serving his tour at Viet Nam, Morris attended Thomas Nelson Community College and received his A.A.S in Electronics Technology and was certified as an Electronics Technician in 1979 by the Dept. of Labor & Virginia Apprenticeship Counsel.

He worked many years as Electronic Technician at corporations such as NASA, Honeywell, and Pfizer. He also took on a part time job as an adjunct professor at Howard Community College where he taught Telecommunications and other various courses in the Electronics Technology Degree Program. He enjoyed playing softball, football, and listening to music, laughing, and being with his family. He touched the lives of many people with his smile, generosity, and his sense of humor.

Morris is survived by his wife Joyce and four daughters (and spouses): Katrina Washington-Trest (James), Kasandra Paulemon (William), Kristina Hood, and Kenecia Daniels (Kazmir); three grandchildren, Kenecia Daniels, Kassy Paulemon, and Kazmir Daniels Jr.
