

Mozell Johnson Ellis

January 10, 1925 - December 13, 2018

On early Thursday morning, December 13, 2018, the death angel came and took our beloved mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and great-great-grandmother to her heavenly home.

Mozell Johnson Ellis, 93 was born on January 10, 1925 in Isle of Wight County to the late Eddie L. and Susie H. Johnson. She attended Isle of Wight Training School.

On February 17, 1945, Mozell married the love of her life-the late George W. Ellis and they were blessed with six children. She loved her family and working in the yard. She was a giving and compassionate person.

Mozell was baptized at an early age at Union Bethel African Methodist Episcopal Church where she served as a faithful Choir member and Sunday School member. She also served on the Stewardess Board, Missionary Board, Hospitality Committee and Pastor's Aid Board.

Mozell was predeceased by her parents Eddie and Susie Johnson; two brothers, Eddie Johnson, Reverend George Johnson, Sr., and three sisters, Gladys Willis, Luverdia Major, and Goldie Edwards.

She leaves to cherish and treasure her memory: one son, George W. Ellis of
