

Nancy B. Freeman

June 26, 1953 - May 22, 2024

Nancy B. Freeman, 70, was called home on May 22, 2024. She rejoins her husband of 51 years, Leslie G. Freeman, who gained his wings just a few short months ago.

Left to cherish her memory are her daughter Stacey Lynn (Bruce), her son Justin (Stacy), her most favorite grandson, Dylan Shea, her most favorite granddaughters Madison and Ryleigh and one brother, Stan Blankenship along with a host of nieces and nephews.

In addition to her husband, Nancy was predeceased by her mother, Ruth J. Parker, her step-father, Clyde H. Parker, her father, Charles G. Blankenship, II, and her brother Charles G. Blankenship, III.

Family was everything to Nancy, and nobody was more important to her than her kids and grand babies. Even at her weakest, with her own battles to fight, she wanted to make sure her kids and grand babies were going to be ok. A truly selfless woman, she gave everything she had to those she loved most. A very private and simple woman, she preferred the comfort of her home to going out and socializing, but she loved seeing how everyone was doing on Facebook. She had an unhealthy addiction to Pepsi, loved chocolate, Lifetime movies and a good John Grisham mystery.

Nancy held tightly to her belief in Jesus, and it comforts us knowing he has her in his arms now. She will be desperately missed by those who love her most.

A Celebration of Life is being planned, and details will be shared when they have been finalized.

“ Nancy has been my best friend for 40 years, I could share all with her and she to me. We shared our lives together. She was always taking care of children at home and then taking care of all three grandchildren as long as she could walk. She gave all to her family including her mother where she went to her house at least 6 times a day, taking care of all food and medicines and hospital stays and also keeping her house as well as her own, it finally took its toll and she was down. I had moved to northern VA, and we still shared WE kept each other's spirits up thru both our situations until the end. Nobody ever had a best friend that touched mine. I will miss her forever. Nobody understood me like her and me for her. May she rest in peace with her loved ones

“ Nancy was one of my dearest friends when I lived in South Norfolk. We chose Nancy and LG to be our son, Heath Jones' Godparents. I have missed them both since leaving South Norfolk in 1996.
I know that Nancy is resting in our Heavenly Father's arms now. Stacey, Justin and your families, my prayers are with you all at this time.
Love, "Aunt Connie"
