“ It saddens me to learn of Nancy's death. I remember as a child in '51 Winthrop', I would sit on the bench with Nancy for hours. Although some difference in age, she being approx 17 years older, we would talk about such beautiful things that life had to offer. Nancy always talked positive. She taught me kindness. I have not seen Nancy in years, but I will always remember her till the end of my time.

I love you Nancy, No doubt, you are in Heaven.

“ I will pray for your family during this difficult time. I will ask God to give you comfort, strength, and peace. Nancy was such a nice person. She was loved so much by so many. To know her was to love her. She babysat me and my siblings many years ago. Her love for people, (especially the young) never went unnoticed. May she rest in peace. God loves her so much.##imported-begin##Brenda "BB" Burgess McCoy##imported-end##
