

Naomi Coston

October 25, 1943 - January 18, 2015

Naomi (Anderson) Coston, 71, transitioned from this life to the next on January 18, 2015 at Autumn Care Nursing and Rehab Center of Suffolk following an extended series of illnesses. Naomi was born on October 25, 1943 in Portsmouth, VA to Charles and Moise Anderson in Douglass Park. She was predeceased by her parents, Charles and Moise Anderson, three brothers, Earlice (Earl) Anderson, Clyde (June) Anderson, Hal (Harrold) Anderson and a special Niece, Cheryl Hines.

Naomi was well known in Portsmouth as she lived there a majority of her life. She graduated from I.C. Norcom High School in 1964 and attended Norfolk State College thereafter. She worked several years at Holiday House caring for mentally challenged children. Some of us remember her as the “Candy Lady” in Douglass Park. She also worked as a hair dresser and was an amazing cook. Naomi spent her last days at Autumn Care Nursing Home where she made many special friends who will miss her dearly.

She is survived by her sons, Richard Reginald “Reggie” Coston and Andre Dino “Deanie” Coston; daughter-in-law, Kriscine (Richard) Coston, granddaughter Payten Coston; grandsons Rashard Coston, Montreal Coston, Tyrique Coston and Nigel Godwin; her brother, Herbert Anderson; her sister, Allie V. Morris; a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, a special nephew Rev. Lenny Morris and many other acquaintances and friends. Her transition was completed as she proclaimed that she accepted Jesus Christ as her personal savior in her later years. It is written that to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. We thank God for His unchanging hand that we hold on to, and are comforted by. The family is thankful for the presence of friends, family and guests. Most of all, we are thankful for the presence of the Holy Spirit that comforts us. God's blessings upon us all.
