“ We will miss you at George's Market . The laughing and cussing out all in fun. You sure were a ladies man. No more suffering. Until we meet again. Antoinette Franklin.

“ My dearest cousin, Nathaniel had the gift of making you laugh, no matter how down you or he felt. He never thought about the disparities, which befell him later in life. I loved him for him and his spirit despite his human condition. He was a fighter and it showed through his gift of comedic gab. You will be sorely missed Nathaniel Barnes but the indelible mark you left in my heart, will live on. I love you, forever and always! Viola
