“ I remember being younger, going to grandma Jackie house and Aunt Odessa reading stories from the Bible to me and my sisters. I remember how she took us to bible study every week. She was the most loving a kindest. Se will be missed greatly. I love you.

“Odessa, along with Flossie, Ruby, and Jack 'Marion' from the Smith family in Hattonsville, babysat the younger Joyner children for my mom and dad in the early sixties.

They were all loving, but didn't take any mess like our dearly beloved Cousin Sadie.

Odessa also helped, along with her sisters, not only helped introduce me and the other kids to order and discipline, but also to the "stories". 🤔🤔

We watched General Hospital, Another World, The Doctors. I am smiling at how boring they were to me as a child and how unlike today's soap operas, the content was more innuendo and left more to the imagination. But my cousins knew that I didn't have a clue so as long as I sat there quietly, didn't really get alarmed. 🤔

All of the sisters helped me in my budding educational development and were just pleasant to be around.

What I will always remember about Odessa is her sophistication and beauty, and her love of family. I loved to see her smile because it was more like a blush, then a smile, and this is a unique characteristic shared by sisters from both of our families.

I am praying for her daughters who have done a phenomenal job in caring for their mother and ensuring her comfort until her last day. I know Odessa is tremendously proud of the women you have become.

Please accept my condolences as one of the family and we know that the Lord will heal your hearts and preserve the best memories of a beautiful daughter, sister, mother, cousin and friend to many.

Oh Aunt Odessa, how precious, precious you were to us. We heard the limb that has fallen from our Smith family tree. We know the Lord caught you with His right hand. We keep hearing you say; "Grieve not for me". Ya'll remember the good times, the laughter when we gathered around. Don't y'all know, "I lived a Good Life!" My mind is at ease, my soul is a resting. "Now gone shed a tear, but keep smiling, be Strong as I am counting on each of you." We love you and we shall never forget you. Affectionally - Your Nephews' and Nieces'
