

Ollie M. Adams

March 15, 1925 - February 27, 2017

Ollie Mae Adams quietly passed away on February 27, 2017. Born on March 15, 1925 and reared in Wilson, NC, Ollie was the daughter of the late Lafayette Dail and Hattie Bulluck Dail. She was preceded in death by her husband, Wade Bernard Adams, Sr., son, Wade Bernard Adams, Jr., and brother, Clyde Mitchell Dale, Sr.

Mae attended C. H. Darden High School in Wilson, and was a proud and dedicated member of the Darden Alumni Association, Tidewater Chapter. After moving to Norfolk to join her husband, she worked most of her life in private duty nursing.

As a charter member of Community Presbyterian Church, she was extremely active in the life of the church, serving on the Deacons Board, Friendship Team, Inspirational Choir, and Presbyterian Women.

Surviving is her daughter, Hattie Redd (Alfred) of Portsmouth; three grandchildren, Alfred H. Redd, III of Hampton, Wanda R. Spraggs of Farmville and Sherry B. Frisbee of Hyattsville, MD; three great grandchildren, Shauntee' and Rashaun Bailey and Amiyah Frisbee; two great-great grandchildren, Adriel and David Bailey; many nieces, nephews, including two very "special" nephews, Jerry Adams (Alice) of Las Vegas and Troy Dale (LeTonya) of Portsmouth.

“ Mrs. Adams will definitely be missed!! She was a blessing to many brought joy to those around her. She was a humble and generous person. Always had a smile on her face that would brighten a person's day! I loved to so sit and talk with her, and gained much wisdom in doing so! I had the pleasure of working with Mrs. Adams on the Deacon Board at Community Presbyterian Church. She was a great leader and it was an honor to be apart of that ministry with her. Heaven has really gained an anointed servant of the Lord!! Mrs. Adams you will be missed!!
Blessings,
