“ I am sorry to hear about the passing of Otis Lee Jones, Sr. I knew him when he was a kid growing up in the Pughsville subdivision of Suffolk, Virginia. We used to attend his church, Church of God and Saints of Christ (Pughsville), from time to time, when we were kids. When our church (Union Baptist Missionary Church, Shoulders Hill) burned down, in the 1960s, his church opened its doors to us, so we could continue to have our church meetings and worship services.

A few years ago, I discovered that he was a member of "Van Jones and King David's Harp", a gospel recording group, out of Suffolk, Virginia, and that some of their gospel music videos were available on YouTube. Needless to say, I viewed them all. All of the gospel recordings and videos, on YouTube, were so uplifting and inspirational.

He's gone on to Glory, but the gospel music and gospel videos of him and "Van Jones and King David's Harp" will live on, to inspire men, women, boys, and girls, today and tomorrow. May God continue to bless and strengthen his entire family, during this time of loss. (Archie W. Earl, Sr.)

“ I am sorry to hear about the passing of Otis.

He sold me my first renter's insurance policy way back in 1994; over the years, I have maintained it in some form and it has saved me a lot of money when disaster struck.

For this I'll be forever grateful; I had no idea it existed until he taught me the importance of maintaining it.

Peace and many blessings and may God comfort your hearts.

“ *To the Jones Family,
Churchlands little league was so much fun
when watching
Otis Jr. play baseball and Otis Sr. coaching.
My husband Greg enjoyed watching Otis Jr play as well. Memories are wonderful, they keep us smiling and grateful.
May the LORD comfort and guide you in your grief.*
