“ I have waited to post hoping that God would provide me the ability to do this without tears however that is not the case. I was blessed and fortunate to hold this amazing woman in my arms for 20 years. She filled my every waking moment with sunshine laughter and rainbows. I hope she knows there will not be a minute in the days months and years ahead that thoughts of her and the memories she filled my heart with will not be thought of...I love you Pam. Fly high with the angels because now you are going to be the wind beneath me and the whisper of every leaf.

“ My Pammy Jean, a beautiful light in my life. Loved your funny wit and your unselfishness. Always feeding somebody you thought needed a meal. You made me laugh so many times. You will be missed by so many friends and family. You must have fulfilled your mission on earth for God to have called you home. So glad you are pain free again. Will always love you. Your mom.
