

Parris Arnez Folston

July 25, 1981 - May 6, 2020

Paris Arnez Folston, 38, was born July 25, 1981 in Portsmouth, Virginia to Michael and Jacqueline Folston. He graduated from Deep Creek High School, Class of 2000. He served in the United States Army from 2001-2004. After his military career, he worked at various companies, but found his career employed at A.D.P. in Norfolk, Va., as an Associate Client Support Consultant. Parris was a member of the First Church of Deliverance in Portsmouth. He was a loving, devoted father and friend for life. On May 6, 2020, he was unexpectedly removed from our presence, but not from the presence of God. He leaves to cherish his memories, his mother, Jacqueline Hart, Woodbridge, VA; his father, Michael Folston (Ralfella), Chesapeake, VA; fiancé, Chanel Wood; daughter, Ty'Zhauna Lee; son, Parris Arnez Folston, Jr., and a surprise blessing on the way... all from Norfolk, VA; two sisters, Kaleesha and Kierra Francis both of Mariette, GA; a nephew, Elijah Folston, Chesapeake, VA and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends. Parris is dearly missed by family and friends. His departure has left a void that cannot be filled.

My heart is truly taken by the passing of my cousin. This season has been on thing after another but I know that God is in control and Jesus is healing power over all of our minds, hearts and this situation. God I ask for justice and deliverance from this within our community. Cuzzo 🙏 you didn't deserve this. #RIH

“ I will always remember how happy you were on the birth of your son and watching you smiling as you were holding him was priceless. At that moment your life changed.

Remembering you is easy, I do it everyday, but missing you is a heartache that never goes away.

I love you Parris!

“ We will forever miss your presence here on earth. We are saddened to know that we will not see your smile, experience your gentle demeanor or get to laugh with you again. May God's blessings rest on your parents, your children, your fiance and the rest of your family. May He hold them extra tight today and forever.

Rest in peace with our love, Frances Woodard Tillar and the Woodards, Elmo Tillar, Joi Jones Battle, Ryan and Benjamin Jones and family.
