“ To the woman who molded me into the woman that I have become, simply put I love you. You prayed for me, watched over me, lifted me, and loved me. I know that you are with our savior and for that I can rejoice although I still mourn you. I thank God for the years, the trips, the times, the laughs, the stories, the memories that you created with me. I will forever miss you because you meant more to me than words can explain. I thank God for the opportunity to know a woman as magnificent as you. Thank you for encouraging me to move ahead, for teaching that with hard work all things are possible, and for instilling in me the word of God. I love you so much and I miss you daily but I hold on to all the things that you have given me I will forever be grateful.

Mrs. Georgia, you were my tutor, mentor, and friend. I know that you have found peace, love and freedom in heaven with the Creator and the Almighty king. You are going to be sadly missed by us all. We will always remember your love, kindness, and generosity until the day we meet again. Thank You Mrs. Georgia for all the love that you have blessed us, family and friends, and may you reign with the Lord always and forever. -Brandon Pearson (student/friend)

“ I grew up knowing Georgia Butts. She was a fine educator and family friend. I respected Miss Butts as much as my mom. If she was around I was on my best behavior. She loved to laugh. I can hear her laugh now. Her booming laugh was infectious and you couldn't help but join in. She was a sweet person. One always wanted to jump in and lend a helping hand if she requested it. She will always be with me because we share a special someone in our lives who is very similar in ways to her grandma. I love Miss Butts forever!
