

Patrice Laytrell Boone

February 13, 1977 - February 11, 2024

Patrice Bembry-Boone was born on February 13, 1977, at Sentara Norfolk General Hospital in Norfolk, Virginia. She was the only child born to Cynthia and Francis Howell. She departed this life on Sunday February 11, 2024, while battling a brief illness at Sentara Norfolk General Heart Hospital.

Upon adulthood, she married the love of her life Lee Boone. Together in this union two sons were born.

She attended Norview High where she graduated in 1995. She continued her studies at Norfolk State to receive a degree in Psychology with Certification to teach Special Education as well as completing the Master's Program at Regent University in Educational Leadership. Patrice had a passion and that was to see no child fail. Often, she volunteered countless hours making sure she reached all students that she was blessed to contact. Patrice held many roles in the school systems to include Special Education Teacher, Department Chair, Title 1 Coach, and most recently the position of Assistant Principal with Virginia Beach Public Schools.

Patrice was a wife, mother, daughter, cousin, friend and sister of the Alpha Kappa Sorority, Inc.

She was preceded by her grandfather John Bembry, grandmother Florence

Bembry, aunt Rochelle Bembry, and fur baby "Jim Ross".

She leaves to cherish her memories, her husband; Lee Boone, Chesapeake, Va; her children; sons, Levi Boone, Chesapeake, Va, Elijah Boone, Chesapeake, Va; parents, Francis Howell, Virginia Beach Va, Cynthia Howell, Virginia Beach, Va, fur babies "Tiffany", "Ghost", and a host of aunts, cousins, other relative and friends.

“ Sending my deepest sincere condolences to Patrice Boones family. What a beautiful person. I had the opportunity to teach with Patrice at James Blair Middle Schools. Patrice was the same no matter when I would see her. She always carried a beautiful smile; along with something humorous to say. I would always look forward to seeing Patrice coming through the doors at The Mount Chesapeake. I say to the family continue to trust in the Lord even through your moments of sadness.

“ Sending my sincere condolences to Mrs. Patrice Boone family. I only have great memories of Patrice as we taught together at James Blair Middle. She always carried a beautiful smile, and great words of humor. Enjoyed seeing on Sunday morning as she entered church. Patrice was the type of friend that was easy to love. To the family continue to stand with the Lord as you journey through this season.

Tricey, my sister, my friend, we made decades of memories I will forever hold. You were one of the few who entered my life and remained genuine. Your life reflects the light that you were. I am so grateful to have played a very small part in it. My heart grieves for your family and loved ones. I love you.
