

Patricia E. Kellihan

June 5, 1940 - July 24, 2024

Patricia “Pat” Kellihan, lovingly known as “Neenaw” by many, peacefully left this earthly life to be with the Lord on July 24, 2024. Pat was born on June 5th in Brooklyn, NY, but made her home in Chesapeake, VA, where she became a cherished community member. She always said, "age is just a number, and mine is unlisted," a testament we will always honor. Her motto also highlights her youthful spirit and zest for life, which were evident to all who knew her. Pat was loved by many and is survived by her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren.

Pat was outgoing, fun, and loving, and her love for life shone through in everything she did. She was a firecracker, full of life until the very end, known for her unmatched caring and giving nature. Pat loved having fun, playing games, and watching her favorite show, Family Feud. She loved dancing and could light up any dance floor with her energy and joy. Family gatherings were her favorite, and she found immense joy in the everyday moments spent with loved ones.

A devoted member of New Life Church, Pat cherished her relationship with God and her church family. She loved babysitting and working with the youth services, a testament to her caring nature and dedication to nurturing the next generation. Pat also thoroughly enjoyed volunteering in the community, especially with the Chesapeake Citizens Police Academy Alumni Association.

As we remember Patricia, we are reminded of her enduring legacy and the joy she brought into our lives. She will forever be cherished for her loving heart and the happiness she spread to those around her. Patricia wouldn't want any sad faces; she is now at peace with God and would want us to laugh and enjoy life to the fullest. She leaves behind a world that is better for having known her.

“ Pat and I became friends when we met doing childcare at New Life. Her caring and friendly heart was evident as we got to know each other. We attended many social events together and I must say there never a dull moment around her..She was full of life and laughter. I will miss her but so thankful for the many memories together.
