“ My sister Pat will truly be missed by us dearly. Pat had a unique way of making you like her with big smile, zest for always telling you where she knows you from. She was so proud to tell you that she loved to work and payday was on Friday. God gave our parents Pat so that she could teach us all in some way or another. Rest on my sister, until we see each other again. I love you.

“ Sending my prayers and condolences to the family of Pat. Pat would brighten up any place she walked into with her big and beautiful smile, she was always happy when I would see her and loved her family dearly. She will definitely be missed Pat was an aunt to me she became my family as all of her family did when our families married. I pray for the strength of you all and I love you all. Rest in Heaven Aunt Pat! 🙏🏻🕊️
