

Patricia Lee James Powell

February 6, 1965 - June 26, 2012

Patricia "PAT" L. James Powell, 47 was granted her angel wings on June 26, 2012. Her final days were spent surrounded by family and friends that Pat had touched in some small way throughout her short, yet memorable life.

Pat's life would seem too short to many, but those who were touched by her understood that the quality of existence far exceeds the quantity of time in which one lives. Her gentle smile, sharp wit and many words of encouragement brought so much joy to everyone she met.

Although tall in stature and stout of heart, Pat had the ability give us all such courage and hope, always reminding us of the faithfulness of God. Pat loved any type of puzzle, board games and spending quality time with family and friends. She also enjoyed reading and confessing the word of God.

Pat received Jesus at a very early age and later rededicated her life to Jesus in 1996. She united with Trinity Faith Diamond and was an involved and dedicated member. She was also tirelessly involved with many ministries in the church as well as community and Civic organizations.

In August of 1999, Pat answered the call to preach and minister the word of God under the leadership of Dr. O.L. Cromwell II. She was a constant and faithful servant of the Lord to the very end.

Pat was educated in the Northampton County School system, Portsmouth Public Schools, as well as earning her Associates' Degree in Business from Phoenix University On-Line to continue her education. She garnered extensive knowledge in the Property Management field. She held various positions in this area. She was employed at Drucker & Faulk, LLC, Portsmouth Redevelopment & Housing Authority, First Oakmont North Townhomes, and Harbor Group Management Company. During her employment, she received various certifications such as; Registered Apartment Manager (RAM), Certified Occupancy Specialist (COS), Certified Low Income Housing Tax Credit Compliance (TaCCS), and Notary of the Public for the Commonwealth of Virginia.

Pat is survived by her loving and dedicated husband, Robert J. Powell of Portsmouth, Va.; Sons; Keven L. James and wife MaShonda of Howard County, Md., Xavier M. Powell of Portsmouth, Va.; Daughter Cinnamon P. Middleton of Portsmouth, Va; Brother Harold L. James, Jr. of Portsmouth, Va.; Adopted Mother Margaret McNeil of Portsmouth, Va.; numerous nephews, nieces, cousins and other relatives as well as friends. She always had a special place in her heart for Grandchildren Azaria S. Porter, Christian I. Turner-James, and Ke'Asia N. Moses. Pat was preceded in death by her Mother, Mary E. James and her adopted sister, Sharron A. White.

Thinking of the Powell, James & Middleton family. I send my condolences for your great loss. I shared some fond memories and fun times with Min. Pat as we traveled together to a few Christian conferences. May your fond memories of Min. Pat always bring you joy and I pray that the Love and Peace of God that surpasses all understanding keep you!

“ My love and prayers are with the family. Here is a poem. Lord, make me an instrument of your peace. Where there is hatred, let me sow love where there is injury, pardon, where there is doubt, faith, where there is despair, hope, where there is darkness, light, and where there is sadness, joy. Divine Master, grant that I may not be so much consoled, as to console, to be understood as to understand, to be loved as to love. For it is in giving that we receive. It is in pardoning that we are pardoned. It is in dying that we are born to eternal life. ”

“ We pray the love of God enfolds you during your journey through grief in the loss of your loved one, Min. Pat (James) Powell. We send you thoughts of comfort. We know for certain that we never lose the people we love, even to death. She will continue to participate in every act, thought and decision you make. Her love leaves an indelible imprint in our memories. We find comfort in knowing that our lives have been enriched by having shared her love.
