

Patricia Arlene Taylor

December 18, 1954 - November 11, 2025

Patricia Arlene Taylor, 70, passed away peacefully on November 11, 2025, surrounded by loved ones. Born on December 18, 1954, at Sacred Heart Hospital in Cumberland, Maryland, Patricia “Patti” lived a life defined by service, compassion, and unwavering love for her family and community.

A proud United States Air Force veteran, Patricia dedicated nearly 20 years to her country. Her commitment to service extended far beyond her military career. She was a devoted mother, daughter, sister, and friend whose kindness and generosity touched countless lives.

Patti had a deep love for animals and was an avid advocate for their well-being. She fostered dozens of animals through a local rescue agency, giving each one a safe and loving temporary home. She enjoyed the simple joys of life—reading, crocheting, and sharing laughter with those closest to her. Her vibrant sense of humor, gentle spirit, and warm heart made her a beloved presence to all who knew her.

A woman of great faith, Patti lived her love of God through her actions. She treated everyone with compassion, grace, and a quiet strength that reflected her spiritual foundation.

She is survived by her children, Alexia R. De Leon and Matthew A.T. Coleman; her daughter-in-law, Ashley N. Coleman; her son-in-law, Manuel S. De Leon; and her niece, Tara Binge. Patricia was a proud and loving grandmother to Matthew A.T. Coleman, Avionna N. Coleman, Jace M.

De Leon, Vincent A. De Leon, and Ember T. Coleman. She is also survived by her sisters, Debora Kaufmann and Venus Starr, and her brother-in-law, Robert Kaufmann.

Patricia will be remembered for her boundless love, her selfless heart, and the joy she brought to others—to the moon and back
