“ Although she was my husband Bernard's cousin, I always called her Mrs. Pauline it was a respectful sentiment that she deserved as such an elegant lady. Mrs. Pauline was always so stylishly dressed even if I saw her in the grocery stores and when she was able to drive she would stop by on Sunday's after church "sharp as a tack" impeccable from head to toe with a ready smile the two of us would sit as she told me more family history and we would discuss current events. After exchanging jokes with each other, sometimes Bernard would play his oldies soul/blues music from the 30s-60s and then always off to his garage for some collectible item she may like or need(floor sweeper, flower vase, etc.) that he always had some type of treasure for her.

When Mrs. Pauline health slowed her down and she could no longer drive we would talk at least 2-3 times a month. I will miss our conversations she taught me a lot about how it was "back in the day" and what it took for blacks people to survive. Love of family and a solid belief in The Lord. A Beautiful lady with a lovely smile we certainly will miss your presents. God Bless the family.

“ You were kind and loving in your own special way and I feel blessed to have had you as a mother-in-law. I will especially remember your words of wisdom and comfort as you welcomed your first grandson. You were such a source of strength to the Family and you will truly be missed. You will always be respected and remembered. Praying for peace and comfort for today and the days to come.
