

Pearl V. Twine

May 24, 1932 - August 14, 2023

Pearl Virginia Twine, was called home to be with the Lord on (08/ 14/2023). Her most recent place of residence until her death was Autumn Care of Chesapeake, VA. She was born on May 24, 1932, to the late George H. Twine and Sarah V. Twine of Weeksville, North Carolina. She attended Rebecca AME Zion Church in Weeksville and Mt Olive Baptist, Fernwood Farms Road, Norfolk County aka Chesapeake after relocating with the family. Her favorite Biblical Scripture is Psalm 23.

She also attended Providence High School, Norfolk County, VA. She worked several jobs including a cook for various restaurants (Pugh's Market and the Sportsman Restaurants). Pearl was famous for her "Chicken-n-Dumplings" and "Chocolate Cakes" all made from scratch that delighted many patrons and family members.

In addition to enjoying cooking, she took pleasure in sewing, making her own dresses and making alterations.

She is survived by her siblings, two sisters, Sarah E. Twine, Eldora Gregory (Samuel), two brothers Melvin U. Twine Sr. (Ruth), Percy B. Twine, Sr. (Linda, Deceased).

Pearl is preceded in death by her two sons Vincent W. White and Gene Ray

White. Also, Brothers Willie D. Twine, Sr. (Rosa), George H. Twine, Jr. (Katie), Frederick L. Twine, Ernest R. Twine and Lonnie Twine.

Additionally, a host of nieces, Nephews and other family members are recognized who remain to cherish Pearl's memories.

We also recognize the special love and companionship from Pearl's roommate Alberta Lee and her family who embraced her as one of their own by celebrating her birthday and visitations.
