“ There are so many memories.. Like how he use to give my baby candy in church.. or the trip to Disney and he when and found my favorite drink lol he would have laughed at that one.. or when I would come over to pickup Mari and just chat for a little.. he was a kind and gentle man that will be missed.. I just wish I had spent more time over before he passed.. I wished that I had given him a bigger hug on the last day I saw him..

“ My favorite memories are the big hugs I got everytime I came home to visit. The big smile and hey I got always made my day. He was the only dad in my life. His kind heart was infectious and always had a kind word for you. He showed me what a husband, father, and man a person should be or find for themselves. He will be greatly missed by everyone who knew him.

“ My deepest and heartfelt sympathy to Val and the Brown family. Thomas will be truly missed. He touched a lot of people with his music and involvement in the church. We all go way back when our churches Divine and Little Zion and other churches use to compete for Talent Night. Those were memories of our choirs and other fun get togethers that we can cherish. May God strengthen and sustain you and your family, and continue to bless you as I know He will during this time. We are here for you now and in the days to come.
