

Phill Williams

July 25, 1927 - January 11, 2013

Phill R. Williams was born on July 23, 1927 in Warrenton, North Carolina. He passed peacefully from this life on January 11, 2013. Brother Williams was predeceased by his parents, one brother, one sister, and two sons.

He received his early education in the Warrenton Public School System. He moved to Virginia in 1952 where he worked as an iron worker and master cement finisher. He applied his skills to many construction projects in Portsmouth as well as other cities and states. Following a long career, Phill retired from Diamond Construction Company in 1984. He then worked as a security guard for over ten years at the Portsmouth Lumber Company before full retirement in 1996.

He is survived by his wife of 57 years Alice Williams, four sons: Phillip (Lawanda), Steve (Evelyn), Charles (Mary), and Chris (Michelle), four daughters: Alicia, Keisha, Janet (Carey), and JoAnn (Freddie). Five brothers: Sanders (Esther), Boney, Richard (Geraldine), Thomas (Vivian), and Albert, four sisters: Elizabeth (Gene), Bertha (Isaac) Irene (Leroy), and Maggie, twenty grandchildren, eleven great grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and other family members.
