It was good seeing the family from Washington Park. I remember all of you from the earlier years. Darrell took care of a family friend Ms. Joyce. She called him Phillip. I appreciated him coming into her life until the day she passed. I never worried about Joyce because Red was there for her. Gary, Red said to me "you looked out for him". I said I know it. It has always been you and Gary running around. He would not leave the conversation without saying take care of yourself.

“ Some people are easier to love... you were one of those people. You had the unique ability to see others through the eyes of Jesus Christ. No judgement and no condemnation. You were a great uncle... although you didn't see them often, when you did, it was as if no time had passed at all. You spoke wisdom into their lives, you constantly reminded them of your love, and you always told them how proud you were of them. You even spoke good things about their father. Thank you, Mr. Weathers, for being just you, humble, kind, quiet-spoken and most of all, God fearing. You didn't hide how you felt about God, Jesus Christ, and the Holy Spirit. You have left this wretched world behind and have gone on to claim your wings. We met when I was only 17 (over 40 years ago), and it has truly been a pleasure being your sister-in-law. Rest easy Darryl, until we meet again, Mildred Weathers (RaKira, MeChelle, Regginal, and Jasmine)
