“ Sad news of a lovely friend passing, condolences to the family. Phyllis will be missed by many, myself included. You were a gentle soul and it was my good fortune to share a piece of your world for all these years. May Heaven celebrate your arrival.

I still look for your car at work my friend. I will always cherish our memories working at the Moose. Some of those memories are crazy like when I first started working there and came running to you because we were closing and I heard a really strange noise and told me the Moose was haunted..... But you were laughing so hard at my bare feet running across the dance floor..... Um I will never stop missing you !!!

“ Granny, just to be able to call you that makes me so lucky. You were the best granny in the whole world. I really mean that. We have so many special memories together. I'm gonna miss our long talks most of all. Me and you just got each other. I know You'll still be guiding me through life and all your little life lessons you taught me will stay with me. I love You so much. I'm gonna miss you for the rest of my days. I love You more than you'll ever know. 💕

To my Aunt Phyllis, thank you for welcoming me with warmth and the kindest heart. I was a shy kid learning my new blended family and you always treated me with love. I never felt like a step-anything. I always felt like a son, a brother, and like your nephew. I will always remember riding my bike and discovering "Phyllis Beach". I was so excited to tell you all about it and go back with you. I know that you are whole now, without pain and with complete peace. Thank you for the gift of knowing you on this Earth. Love you always.

Philly- We will truly miss you. You have been an amazing friend for 35 years. I loved our chats. Bringing you seashells from where ever we traveled on vacation. And, adding to your mermaids collection. Every time I see a mermaid I thought of you. We made a lot of memories that will be cherished. Our beautiful you are forever in our Kings grip, no more pain, no more restless nights. Watch over us until we meet again. Love you Philly Maria (Ria) and Tommy (your Clone) Merritt
