

Phyllis Marie Parker

May 11, 1951 - May 28, 2018

On Monday, May 28, 2018, Phyllis Marie Parker entered into eternal rest and peace with her husband, daughter and sisters by her side. She was 67 years old.

Phyllis was born in Norfolk, Virginia on May 11, 1951. She was the youngest daughter of the late Calvin Parker Sr. and the late Julia Riggins Parker.

She attended Norfolk Public Schools and graduated from Booker T. Washington High School in 1969. After graduation, she was employed by Norfolk Public Schools as a secretary. Later she was promoted to Office Manager, a position she held until her retirement.

Phyllis was a faithful partner at "The Mount". She loved her church family and cheerfully supported its activities and projects.

She loved her family and friends and took pride in entertaining them at her home. She enjoyed reading, gardening, cooking and shopping. She was generous with her time, her efforts and her possessions.

Her parents and brothers, Calvin Parker Jr., Harvey Parker and Gregory Parker preceded her in death.

Left to cherish her memories are her husband, Melvin Edlow; daughter, Alicia Parker, stepdaughter, Monica 'Edmonds; grandchildren, Tory, Cameron, Zhana, Brandy and Sampson; brothers, James Parker, Brian Parker, Paul Parker, and Anthony Parker, sisters, Andrea Britton; Jacquelyn Parker, Patricia Lee, and Michelle Parker, aunts Jean Thompson and Ruby Parker; and a multitude of cousins, nieces, nephews and friends.

Now her work on earth is ended, and her path of life is trod. Now her soul is sweetly resting in the loving arms of God. Rest in peace for your labor has ended.
