

Portia Mills

February 27, 1950 - January 6, 2015

Portia worked at Norfolk Naval Shipyard in Portsmouth at the BEQ in the housekeeping department for 12 years. She was a dedicated, dependable worker. She was a lover of hand dancing. Pinky's favorite song was Frankie Beverly's Before I Let go. She was an amazing cook and loved to feed people. Her heart of gold mad! it hard for her to say no and she would do anything for anybody. The only thing she loved more than anything else was her family. She would always say "Ya'il go check on your Daddy and make sure he's ok." It wasn't often you would see Pinky and not see her five little ducklings behind her, even on bus trips to Baltimore to visit family she had her faithful five. Portia was preceded in homegoing by her Father Raymond Stokley Sr. and her sister Crystal Galloway. She is survived by her husband of 50 years, Curtis Mills, her mother, Maggie Stokley, her brothers Arthur and Raymond (Bunny) Stokley, her children Ricky Mills, Lisa (Julian) Porter, Teresa (Sherray) Gravely, Monique (Thomas) Hampton, and Irvin (Christine) Mills, sister-in-law, and host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, an aunt, and friends.

“ To My Extended Family... You are in my thoughts and prayers during this most difficulty transition in life. Just remember you have lost nothing, because Webster Dictionary defines it as unable to locate; not knowing where something or someone is; so rest assure she is not lost but at the right hand of the Father as we are reminded in the 14th Chaper of John.. In my Father's house are many manisons, if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you and if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also..and whither I go ye know, and the way ye know. Then Thomas spake unto Him, Lord, we know not whiter thou goest; and how can we know the way. Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father but by me. I Love You All, Mister Andre' (Uncle Andre')
