“ I would like to express my condolences at this time to your family. The Bible is a great source of encouragement at times like this. A comforting thought is at Revelation 21:3,4, where it states "...And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry be anymore the former things have past away". This scripture gives us hope for the future! You can also find comfort in Acts 24:15 - Death does not end it all. May Jehovah bring you comfort and peace during this difficult time.

“ To all of the Family of Queenie "Vickie" Lawrence,

On behalf of the Hart family our deepest condolences to your family for the loss of your loved one. I really didn't have a chance to know Miss Queenie as well as I would have liked to but I am certain that she was as special as the sisters that has had such an impact on my life (Ms. Alice and Mrs. Dottie) as well as the other sister that I have grown to love as much as my own family. You are all in my prayers, from my family to yours, "We love you dearly and holding you up.

Remember the story of the roses in the garden. "Only the most pretty and beautiful rose of the day get picked by our beloved GOD, gets picked and taken back to HIS garden to be planted.

My Very Best Regards,

B. J. Hart III

“ Sherrie & Family:

I would like to extend my condolences to you and the family in the passing of your Mother and loved one. The only words that I can say to comfort you at this time is from (2 Corinthians 5: 6-8) "Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord: (For we walk by faith, not by sight:) We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be asbsent from the body, and to be present with the Lord." May you and the family find comfort in the Lord who is our creator, author and finisher. God Blessings upon you.

*To Sherry Blue and her family,
My condolences to you and family, may you find comfort in remembering the great times you had with your mom. No one knows what its like to lose a mom until she is gone from your presence. Many are called but few are chosen and now she is in a better place with surrounding peace. I will keep you and family in prayer.*

*Dear Sherry,
How beautiful your mother's was! She could have been your sister. Love just shines from her face. She must be having a gorgeous reunion with Jesus. I hope that the Holy Spirit fulfills its promise as a comforter, to fill your heart only with happy memories of your mother, and the peace that you'll be together again some day. But now, while your heart is still aching so sharply, please know that the prayers and deep sympathy of your friends are with you.
with love,
