

Quinton Eugene Elliott

September 6, 1986 - April 10, 2025

Quinton Eugene Elliott, unexpectedly departed this life on April 10, 2025. He was born in Norfolk, Virginia, on September 6, 1986, to Cheryl Davis-Elliott and Quinton Hawkins.

Quinton, affectionately known as “Tint,” by family and close friends, was raised in Portsmouth, Virginia, where he resided until the time of his death. He was a quiet spirit and a man of few words. At five years old when he loved to sing Billy Ray Cyrus’ song Achy Breaky Heart and cause everyone to smile.

He was a Churchland Trucker and graduated high school in 2005, from Churchland High School, Portsmouth, Virginia. He was very proud of this accomplishment.

Tint liked watching football and his favorite team was the Las Vegas Raiders. When you saw him, he usually had on black clothing, which portrayed his beloved Raiders’ colors, black and silver. He loved fried chicken and Chinese food. At the age of 16, he became a member of Grove Baptist Church, in Portsmouth and he went on to live his life.

Quinton was preceded in death by his maternal grandparents, Winfred and Mamie Elliott Davis; paternal grandparents, James and Elizabeth Hawkins; several uncles, aunts, and cousins.

He leaves to cherish his loving memory his son, Quareez Elliott, of McAllen Texas; daughter Londyn Elliott of Kinston, North Carolina; mother Cheryl Davis-Elliott of Portsmouth, Virginia; father, Quinton Hawkins of Norfolk, Virginia; brothers, Toriano Elliott, Shannon (Ericka Hancock) Elliott, and Derell Rayeford, all of Portsmouth, Virginia; nieces, Kieara Jones, Akira Porter, and Torian Elliott, all of Portsmouth, Virginia; nephews, Jaquan Baskerville and Ashton Rayeford, both of Portsmouth, Virginia, and a host of many relatives, adopted relatives and special friends.

“ To Ms Cheryl, Shannon, Tito and the rest of the family. My thoughts and prayers are with yall. With this sudden tragedy, lean on God and not your own understanding. Father God, please protect this family's heart and mind. Bring them thru this tough time and the future. Grant them solace and comfort. Give them the breakthrough in order for justice to be served.
