“ Pat, my family extends our appreciation for the life of Randy, and if there is anything we can do to lighten the grief, call me 819-7860. When my husband and the boys father died, (Greg) Randy was there to assist us in anyway we needed. His sister Charlette was my friend as well, I still miss her today as if it were yesterday. We understand the pain and celebrate his home going with you, because we know he with our father in heaven. May God receive all the glory and the honor.

“ Randy has been a very inspirational, encouraging and supportive christian male figure in my son George's life. He treated my son as if he were his own, and for that I will be eternally grateful. I thank GOD for his life, his kindness and gentleness as a school mate and as an adult, he never changed.....He will be truly missed. My prayers are with his family and friends, may GOD bless all of you.##imported-begin##Amelia Sears Simmons##imported-end##

“ Just a word to the family to encourage you during these moments of trials. Randy was a very beloved person and wore an outfit that many could admire. The outfit was his "smile".

He could many times be seen flashing it without cost and giving it to anyone that would receive it. I remember how he always greeted me with, "hi cous". There was no fleshly connection but yet a familial and spiritual connection.

Due to his carpentry business, I solicited his expertise on quite a few occasions. He would always say to me, if there is anything that I can do to help you, just let me know.

Please let me draw from something that my daughter spoke as a side conversation. Many times when his name would come up in our conversations, she would say, "cousin Randy is so nice". "He just makes you feel so good whenever you come around".

I feel like I could write a book. I truly will miss his presence but I think that God gave him to us for the appointed time. He touched so many lives. I know there will be sadness and tears. Cry if you need to because that reminds of our humanity. I close by saying that he has fought the battle in the heat of the day and night. He has finished his course. He has made it.

Davis Family be encouraged and know that God has not left you nor forsaken you.

“ The death of a loved one, is one of life's most difficult experiences. "I'm not sure what to say, but I want you to know I care." I know Randy heard these words "Well done, my good and faithful servant." You can take comfort in that fact that you will see him again.
Weeping may last through the night, but joy comes with the morning.
God is our refuge and strength, always ready to help in times of trouble.
Love you my sister,
