“ I was shocked and saddened to learn of Ray's passing! He had just visited me only a couple of days before he was admitted to the hospital. I guess I could say that Ray was my "first date" which was some 50 years ago! I was 13 and Ray took me to a Black Oak Arkansas concert at Hampton Coliseum.

As I was reading his obit, I found myself smiling and shaking my head in agreement when I came to the part which read " Ray did things his way". What an understatement !! Haha Anyone who EVER met Ray knows that.

I miss Ray already. Not that I saw him on a regular basis, but often enough that we always stopped and chatted whenever or wherever that happened to be.

Ray has been so lonely since Janet's passing and I hope they are catching up right now.

I really am going to miss him when I think of him. And when it's my turn to make that trip, I hope he'll be a familiar face I see.
