“ I had the pleasure of working with Regina at a company called MobileOneCourier. From the time that I entered the company, you could feel her authenticity and she displayed it in how she conducted herself. She helped me a lot with my entry into the company. Gave me the feeling of a beloved auntie. Im saddened that she's no longer here. May the Most High take great care of her and I pray for comfort for her loved ones.

“ My sincerest condolences go out to Tish, Tiana, Chandra and the entire Vass Family. Gina was my birthday twin and she never let me forget that. She was always warm, kind and funny anytime I saw or spoke to her although that was not often. She will be truly missed but never forgotten. (5/10)

“ My condolences to Reggie, Sandy and the rest of the family. We all grew up together at Zion Baptist, in the Children and Youth choirs and having the time of our lives. Regina was such a great friend and always kept us smiling. I know that right now she is still smiling down on us. Take your rest, Regina! Take your rest!
